ABOUT ME

I enjoy the challenge of telling a good story in the best possible way, combining clear writing, powerful imagery, and expressive layouts. I aim to find a career that allows me to happily be the exception to the rule that “your job doesn’t define you.” I geek out over great design. I am driven toward constant improvement. I love ending the day with a pint of craft beer.

Am I willing to...

Relocate? Sure thing!

Take myself too seriously? Heck no!

Work weird hours and travel? Absolutely! Routine is boring.
